

Call for research participants

Understanding the needs of the South Australian Defence and veteran community

Do you have a current or past connection to Defence service and live in South Australia?

Researchers from Military & Emergency Services Health Australia (MESHA) together with Veterans SA are inviting you to participate in a research study aimed at understanding what matters most to former and current Australian Defence Force (ADF) personnel and their families.

What is involved?

Complete a ~30-minute online form covering topics, including:

- Employment
- Education and skills
- Social support
- Housing
- Health
- Parenting
- Financial wellbeing

Who can participate?

We'd like to hear from South Australian residents (18+ years) who are:

- Former or current ADF personnel (Regular or Reserve)
- A current or ex partner of former or current ADF personnel
- An adult child (18+ years) of former or current ADF personnel

Your insights will help Veterans SA shape future advocacy efforts and programs to support South Australia's veteran community.

Participants can enter a draw to win

1 of 40 $25 e-gift cards!

Scan to have your say

Or visit:
veteranssa.sa.gov.au/needs-survey

Research contact:

Dr Elizabeth Saccone, MESHA Senior Research Officer
research@mesha.org.au | (08) 7002 0880

Government of South Australia

VeteransSA

The Hospital Research Foundation Group
Military & Emergency Services Health Australia

Ethical aspects of this research have been approved by the Departments of Defence and Veterans' Affairs Human Research Ethics Committee (protocol 727-26).